

OPEN LETTERPRESS WORKSHOP

You want to know why it's called
"UPPERCASE" and "lowercase"?

Come by the open letterpress workshop and find out!

Every Wednesday, we open the drawers
and start setting letters.

Whether you're curious about typography,
old printing methods, love the smell of ink
or want to make your own prints, this is your space to explore.

No experience needed, just bring your hands and your ideas!

I'm Phil, a communication design student,
and I'll be there to guide you.
See you in L 1.12! :)

WEDNESDAY 2 PM - 5 PM, L1.12
